Timeless style and old-world elegance define Hotel Monteleone, a luxurious hotel set among all the captivating architecture and history of New Orleans' French Quarter. Indulge in world-class cuisine, relax in the heated rooftop pool, and rest easy in your room decorated to reflect the one-of-a-kind charm of The Big Easy.

Located in the middle of it all, Hotel Monteleone is a fantastic starting point to exploring New Orleans and a place to unwind when you need to get away from it all.

Your stay begins when you first step into the hotel's stately Grand Lobby, where ornate chandeliers illuminate gleaming tile floors, with an eye-catching grandfather clock greeting you near the check-in desk.

Hotel Monteleone's upscale appeal extends to its 570 guest rooms, including 55 luxury suites that offer panoramic views of New Orleans, garden tubs, and high-end amenities. The largest of these, the 1,045-square-foot FJ Monteleone Suite, has a luxurious bedroom, granite bath with Jacuzzi tub and glass shower, and a parlor with European-style furnishings.

A stay at Hotel Monteleone can be just as luxurious for your furry four-legged friend. As one of several pet-friendly hotels in New Orleans, Hotel Monteleone offers packages that include a mat with water and food bowls, a bag of treats, and a special brochure that highlights places you can go with your pet.

Of course, Hotel Monteleone can't be mentioned without the famed Carousel Bar & Lounge. For 65 years, the hotel bar has been spinning, literally. Installed in 1949, the bar turns on 2,000 large steel rollers, giving you a complete turn around the room every 15 minutes. It's New Orleans' only revolving bar, and taking a seat here provides an experience you won't find anywhere else in the city. The craft cocktails and delectable bar bites are a great bonus.

For fine dining, try the on-site restaurant, Criollo. The menu reflects the Creole culture so prevalent in the French Quarter, with such dishes as seafood gumbo with Gulf shrimp and crawfish, eggplant roulade, and grilled Muscovy duck breast. Beyond its tantalizing breakfast, lunch, and dinner options, Criollo has an impressive wine selection of reds and whites from Argentina, California's Napa Valley, Italy, and more.

Step outside Hotel Monteleone's lobby and you'll find yourself in the heart of the French Quarter, where bars, restaurants, shops, live music venues, and other things to see and do are just a short walk away.

Don't just plan a weekend vacation stay at Hotel Monteleone. The hotel is an ideal spot for a private event, whether it's a wedding, meeting, or corporate party. The hotel features more than 25,000 square feet of meeting space, including everything form a board room for 12 to a lavish reception area for 400.

To experience New Orleans' luxury, romance, and historic charm, book a stay at Hotel Monteleone.
