French Quarter Dining at its Best

The Bistreaux at Maison Dupuy boasts a casual dining experience with a unique combination of foods we grew up loving and flavors that reflect the fine local palate. Renowned Chef Matt Regan has a passion for all things Louisiana grown which drew him back to his culinary roots to be a part of the Maison Dupuy's renaissance. His seasonally-changing menus focus on the region's best available organic and locally harvested ingredients.

Sippin' In the Courtyard

The Rhythm of the City, the Soul of the Quarter. . . . Drink It In!

On the last Wednesday of each month (excluding July, August, and December) the Maison Dupuy plays host to Sippin' In the Courtyard from 5 to 8 PM. With the re-dedication of the Hotel's new courtyard we can now boast exciting and bigger space to accommodate Sippin' and many other events in the largest courtyard in the French Quarter. In cooperation with the Vieux Carre Commission the hotel's iconic courtyard fountain was removed and replaced in order to bring the courtyard to its fullest potential as a modern upscale venue that brings together the sights, sounds and tastes of this great city. Sippin' In the Courtyard is an effort to bring together hotel guests, local residents and tourists residents to share the spirit of the city and the French Quarter. Enjoy live Jazz Music (sometimes we have a DJ), cocktails, wine basket auction, and a specialty menu of Chef Matt Regan's creative Créole dishes all for a good cause with partial proceeds benefiting local non-profits such as the New Orleans Police & Justice Foundation, SPCA, Dress For Success, and many others.
