Blue Moon Saloon & Guest House

The Blue Moon Saloon & Guest House opened in 2001 and has since become one of America's premier venues for Cajun and Roots music from around the world. This world famous honky tonk is a home-grown place where all kinds and sizes are welcome. It's more than just a music venue, and more than just a hostel, it has become a meeting place where world travelers, community organizations, families, artists and politicians rub elbows, dance, drink, laugh, and thank their lucky stars they have the good fortune to spend an evening together in Lafayette, LA.

This little house was moved several blocks from its original location downtown in 1900 using mules and logs and has since been a family home, a flower shop, and now the Blue Moon Guest House. The Guest House is a cozy and friendly place to rest your head while meeting other travelers from around the world. The staff here is friendly and always eager to make your stay as comfortable as possible. The house offers free internet, a stocked kitchen, a/c units in each room, free admission to the Saloon and a beer for all guests over 21, phone usage, book exchange, coin operated laundry, street parking, and coffee in the morning. There are 4 different private rooms in the house to choose from ranging in price from $70 to $90. In addition to the private spaces, there are also shared rooms. For the most bang for your buck, the hostel-style dorm beds are just $18 per night.

The Blue Moon Saloon is located on the back porch of the Guest House. Open Wednesday-Saturday and the occasional Sunday, this intimate setting is a great place to meet locals and travelers alike, as well as hear a variety of music genres up close and personal. Every Wednesday night there is an all acoustic and informal Cajun Jam on the back porch. All are welcome, no matter what skill level. Any given week patrons are likely to experience acts such as Steve Riley and the Mamou Playboys, Feufollet, Roddie Romeo and the Hub City All-Stars, Pine Leaf Boys, or Cedric Watson et Bijou Creole. From Cajun, to Country, Zydeco, Blues, Funk, or rock 'n' roll, the Blue Moon Saloon is home to a great variety of music any weekend you stop by.

The Blue Moon is within walking distance to Downtown Lafayette where you will find small locally owned shops, art galleries, more live music venues, restaurants featuring Cajun and Creole cuisine and local farm-to-table style cooking, and depending on the time of year you visit you can find a Festival right outside the front door. Mardi Gras parades run by, and the music from Festival International and Festivals Acadiens can be heard from the front porch and the Blue Moon Saloon is always the place to be for the festival after party!

Whether you're just passing through or here to stay, the Blue Moon is the place to be to witness, experience, and live the Cajun culture. There's always a friendly group of locals ready to welcome you with open arms and teach the dance steps. There are no strangers here, just friends we haven't met! If you have any questions about the Blue Moon or would like to make a reservation for the Guest House, we would love to hear from you. Send us an email at info@bluemoonpresents.com or give us a call toll free at 1-877-766-BLUE.
