Jeff Davis Parish

Jeff Davis Parish has been hiding in plain sight for years. Lying along I-10 at the midpoint between Houston and New Orleans, and Lake Charles and Lafayette, it has been a waypoint for these popular destinations. What's changed is the discovery by travelers that this quiet corner of the state holds a number of wonderful treasures. This is the corner of Louisiana where the music is sweeter, the colors are brighter, the food is more savory, the shopping more unique, the festivals are more fun, the tours are more varied and the people are more friendly.
