Work up your appetite for delicious crawfish and get ready to enjoy Cajun culture and southern hospitality at the Dreams Come True South Louisiana Crawfish Festival in Gonzales. Held in late April, this top Gonzales event serves up a day full of family-friendly fun. Some of the best cooks around come here to participate in the crackling, crawfish, jambalaya, and steak cooking competitions, with plenty more food on hand to satisfy your cravings.

When you're not tucking into kettle corn or a nice and juicy hamburger, try your luck in the cornhole tournament or enjoy all the live music. Yet you're just getting started. Check out the awesome autos that are part of the classic car show, watch as hot air balloons float overhead, and admire the wares you'll find in 150 craft booths. There's even inflatables and a petting zoo for the younger crowd, too.

While the festival has more than enough to keep you entertained, there's another reason to experience all it has to offer. The event raises money for Dreams Come True of Louisiana, an organization that supports children with life-threatening illnesses.
