Events in Livingston Parish

With so many unique events to experience in Livingston Parish, you may find that you never want to leave and cannot wait to go back. Discover the wonders of Southern Louisiana as you check out their exciting annual events that will entertain even the hardest to please family members or friends. There is something for everyone in the variety of events planned here.

January

Bird and Sausage Gumbo Cookoff

Each January, treat your taste buds at Watson's annual Bird and Sausage Gumbo Cookoff, held every January at the Livingston Parish Fairgrounds. Cooking teams chop, slice and stir pots of gumbo for a good cause: to bring awareness of the sacrifices our veterans and their families make for our country. Approximately 50 teams compete for first place, judged by a panel of anonymous judges that include professional restaurant owners, chefs and food critics.
