luxurious place for girlfriend getaways, weddings, and your next vacation.

Gleaming white columns, rich architectural details, and a history of decline and revival that dates to the earliest days of Louisiana. You'll find all this, and so much more, at the Nottoway Plantation & Resort in White Castle. A former sugarcane estate and the largest existing Antebellum plantation in the South, Nottoway Plantation is not just a tourist attraction. As a AAA Four-Diamond property and a member of the Historic Hotels of America, it's also a stunning and Choose from any of the 40 guest rooms spread throughout the 31 gorgeous acres of mature oak trees, fountains, and brick walkways. Immerse yourself in the plantation's history when you stay in the renovated rooms in the mansion, which pairs luxuries like marble baths and verandas with breathtaking views.

To really savor the resort's opulence, opt for the Julia Marceline Randolph Honeymoon Suite. Swim in your own outdoor pool, relax in a jacuzzi in your bathroom, and stretch your legs in all the space this three-room suite has to offer. All rooms feature modern luxuries like high-speed wireless internet and flat-screen TVs, so you'll always be connected and entertained.

When it's time to satisfy your appetite, head to The Mansion Restaurant. Enjoy views of the estate's oak trees as you savor Creole-inspired cuisine for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Sip on mint juleps and French 75s on a shady porch to finish an already flawless day.

Although you could spend all day walking the lush grounds and reveling in the plantation's peace and quiet, there's far more to do here. Take a walk through history as you explore the 64-room mansion, learning about the original owner, John Hampden Randolph, his wife Emily Jane, and their 11 children along the way. Then hit on the resort's tennis courts, work up a sweat in the fitness center, and relax in the shade of the poolside cabana.

Rest, relax, and immerse yourself in history when you stay at the Nottoway Plantation & Resort in White Castle. Book your getaway here.
